What does the apostle Paul have to say about our humanity? As a good Jew, Paul was familiar with the Genesis story of creation. By exploring that story and the opening of Paul's Letter to the Romans we are presented with a new and refreshing view of our own humanity, remembering we are created in the image of God.

1st Step

Romans 3:21-26 Genesis 1: 26 & 27 2 Corinthians 5:18 & 19 Ephesians 2:8-9

Step In

Last week we talked about Lent. How have you chosen to connect to God this Lenten season?

Read Genesis 1:26. What does it mean to be created in God's image?

Step Up

Romans 3:21-26 says we all are in need of redemption. Considering our creation in God's image, how have we fallen short of God's glory?

Read 2 Corinthians 5:18-20. What does being reconciled to God mean to you?

Step Out

Consider Ephesians 2:8-9. Based on your personal experience how can you, with free will, respond to God's gift of grace?

How can you make a difference in someone else's life and be an ambassador for Christ?
