

Director of Traditional Worship

Anona United Methodist Church, located in Largo, Florida, is an inclusive church with both a pioneering and innovative spirit in our 150+ year history. We are a congregation who seeks to love God, love our neighbors, and work to transform lives through worship, growing, and serving together in community.

Anona is seeking a dynamic individual to provide inspirational organ and piano music, along with worship leadership support for children, youth and adults in our Traditional Worship services. This is a full-time position with benefits.

Duties/Tasks

- Support and uplift our Traditional worship services through inspirational and well-prepared organ and piano music.
- Work with the Senior and Associate Pastors to oversee Traditional worship planning, including preparation of liturgy, communion, and other seasonal and liturgical needs.
- Provide accompaniment support and co-directing for the Wednesday Choir and rehearsals
- Provide directing and accompaniment support for additional Traditional worship groups and ensembles including children's choirs, an intergenerational choir and a daytime choir.
- Prepare music for weddings, funerals, and other special events and services as needed.
- Participate in regular coaching sessions with the Associate Pastor, and regular meetings with the worship teams and church Program Directors.

Skills & Abilities

- Strong organ and piano skills, and experience in leading musical groups in worship.
- Experience in leading inspirational traditional worship services with excellence.
- Organizational and planning skills in communicating and scheduling of worship groups and services (knowledge of Planning Center Online and ProPresenter software helpful).
- A teachable spirit and willingness to learn Anona's culture and values.

Professional Background

- A degree in Music preferred.
- Demonstrated musical abilities in organ performance, piano accompaniment, and leading age-level musical groups.
